

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF TRIAL LAWYERS

NATIONAL OFFICE STAFF

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
DENNIS MAGGI, CAE

Dennis makes sure the College operates smoothly. In addition to being responsible for virtually everything, he preserves traditions while ensuring the College continues to stay relevant as we move into the future. The buck stops with Dennis.

Dennis recently celebrated his 21st anniversary with the College. He has spent nearly 40 years in non-profit management, using his degree in Business Administration. When he isn't working, he loves to run, cook and read - but especially spend time with his family and grandkids.

SENIOR STRATEGIC INITIATIVES MANAGER
AMY MRUGALSKI, CAE

If you've been on a committee, given to the Foundation, nominated someone for an award or done just about anything to do with the College, you have worked with Amy. She handles Board initiatives, committee appointments, awards, Foundation grants and law school competitions. To name a few.

Amy began working at the College in 2010, the day before her 30th birthday. One husband and two kids later, she's still here! She's a regular at the farmer's market and loves cooking, baking, and enjoying the cultural diversity of Southern California.

OFFICE ADMINISTRATOR
CHERYL CASTILLO

If you have ever called the National Office, chances are you've spoken to Cheryl. She handles office administration, including dues payments, foundation contributions, death notices and general information.

Cheryl has been with the College for more than 15 years and has worked in Administration, Management and Accounting for her entire working career. She loves being outdoors, especially in the mountains, and enjoys spending time with her dogs.

SENIOR MEETINGS AND CONFERENCE MANAGER
SUZANNE ALSNAUER

Suzanne plans the National Meetings, including the Spring and Annual, along with Regional, State and Province Meetings. All those great College events? That's her. If you can dream it, she can make it happen.

Suzanne has been with the College for 12 years. After college, she launched and operated a retail store for 10 years before entering the Association world. Her go to spot to relax and recharge is on the beach with her feet in the sand.

Kim works closely with Suzanne in the Meeting Department and is an expert juggler - of plates, that is. She handles registrations for National, Regional, State and Province meetings, name badges, the National Calendar, CLE credits and is a master of the details.

Kim has been with the College for 3 years, coming to us after spending 13 years with Disney. She has a strong love for the arts - she got a degree in arts from CSUF - and goes to concerts and theater performances whenever she has the chance.

MEETINGS PROJECT COORDINATOR
KIM KLINGAMAN

Geri is the key to all things membership. As an inductee, you got to know her first. She handles nominations, inductees, membership records, database information, emeritus status and deceased Fellows. If you want to be in the Blue Book, make sure she knows where you live.

Before arriving at the College nearly 14 years ago, Geri traveled to almost every major museum, zoo and aquarium in the U.S. and Canada in her capacity with a software developer. She loves to make homemade dog treats and is the most popular person in her neighborhood... with the dogs.

SENIOR MANAGER, MEMBERSHIP
GERI FRANKENSTEIN

Sarah works on the Journal, e-Bulletin, ACTL website, the College podcast Trial Tested, outreach and College communications. She handles logo and media requests along with digital and print archives. She packages up the information and ties it with a bow.

Sarah has been with the College since May, 2021. She previously worked in television, including on the cult classic Freaks & Geeks. She spends her free time reading, traveling and going to the beach. All at the same time and with her adult children whenever possible.
